Dear Mr. Hinchliffe,

The King would have me thank you for your letter.

His Majesty was touched that you felt able to write so openly and honestly about your experiences. The King was deeply saddened to hear of the struggles that you have faced, but was heartened to learn you are working to support those who have been impacted by similar experiences.

However, I must explain, that as a constitutional Sovereign His Majesty acts on the advice of his Ministers and therefore is unable to help in the way that you ask. If you have not done so already, please reach out directly to your local Member of Parliament so they may know of your approach to The King on this matter.

His Majesty is most grateful to you for taking the trouble to write to him as you did. I can tell you that this is a cause Her Majesty Queen Camilla cares deeply for and works to raise awareness of survivors and those impacted by abuse and domestic violence.

Thank you, once again, for writing to The King, who would have me to send you his warmest good wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Keith Hinchliffe
